

Chapter 3: The Jericho Miracle

1. Batterson shares the story of Israel walking around Jericho and then he asks, "What is your Jericho?*" By this he is asking, what huge, God-inspired thing are you praying for?
2. Batterson suggests that we don't just read the Bible but that we pray the Bible. How would you go about doing this? How can you pray scripture?
3. Batterson also suggests that you don't just pray but that you also keep a prayer journal. Have you ever written out your prayers? Have you ever gone back to the prayer journal and seen how God has been faithful? Would you consider starting a prayer journal?
4. Vague prayers are weak prayers because they miss the mark of actually inviting God into something specific. What is an example of a vague prayer? How can you become more specific in your prayers?
5. Batterson shared his personal definition of success on pages 27 and 28. He wrote out three statements that if achieved he would consider his life successful. What would you identify as a statement or two that would define a successful life for you?*
